

CLAYTON AAUW OCTOBER 2010 NEWS

VOLUNTEER NIGHT AT OUR NOVEMBER 22 MEETING

Our next meeting will be at Diamond Terrace at 7:30 pm on Monday, November 22.

As the holiday season approaches, we find ourselves busy preparing for a day of giving thanks followed by a season of gift giving which makes it a perfect time of the year to reflect on a third type of giving...giving of time to worthy organizations. This meeting will feature a panel of representatives from local organizations, each explaining the purpose of their organization and the role of their volunteers.

We will have representatives from

- CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates),
- STAND! Against Violence/The Family Stress Center (a recent merger of the two organizations),
- DVLC (The Diablo Valley Literacy Council),
- Caring Hands (John Muir Hospital) and
- Clayton Library Volunteer Services (confirmation pending).

The panel members will provide handouts along with volunteer application forms for anyone interested in giving their time. I know all of you will find this a highly interesting and educational meeting.

Carolyn Wetzel, Program VP

Welcome to our New Members

In addition to the three new members who joined in September, Sue Coulston, Lisa Ihle, and Mary Ann Knets, we have two more who joined in October--Cathy Botello and Karen Hansen Smith. Looking forward to seeing you at our meetings and having you take part in our interest groups.

Lola Rohrs, Membership

Are you aware of AAUW's "Give-A-Grad a Gift"

(GGG) program? AAUW members can give a recent grad – a friend, daughter, son, granddaughter, grandson, niece, or nephew – a free AAUW membership within two years of their graduation – at no cost to you or them!

This gift would expand their networking opportunities for career development and expose them to current issues in equity and education for women and girls as they receive AAUW publications. They would also be able to take advantage of AAUW Member discounts and benefits.

The grad will receive a one-year member-at-large membership – a $49 value. They can join a branch at any time but will be responsible for paying branch and state dues.

The membership application can be completed online or a PDF version can be downloaded, filled out and sent in to the national office. Full details are on the national web site (www.aauw.org) under Membership Campaigns in the Member Center. Check it out!

You will receive great benefits from AAUW depending on how much you participate in the activities.

Welcome to new member: Susan Coulston

Interviewer: I decided to do the series on new members so we could get to know the new people and invite them to attend events with you.

I met Susan at lunch and a movie and found her delightful. I loved her positive sweet spirit. So I asked Susan "Please give us information about your life?" She sent this wonderful bio.

Susan: The story of me in a nutshell:

I was born in San Francisco, and grew up in Orinda.

I graduated from Miramonte High School, and went on to the University of Pacific, majoring in Social Science. I continued my education at S.F. State and U.C. Berkeley, earning my elementary teaching credential.

I married my wonderful husband, Phillip, a dentist, and we moved to Clayton in 1976, where I continue to reside. I was married 40 years before being widowed suddenly two years ago.

I have taught both first grade and sixth grade, but have been a substitute teacher for the majority of my career until present at the Dorris-Eaton School in Walnut Creek. I also worked part-time in my husband's dental office.

I have two grown children. My son, Todd, resides in So. California with his wife, Jenifer, and their three sons and daughter. My daughter, Erin, lives in Pleasant Hill with her husband, Joel, and their two young little boys. My family and six grandchildren keep me very busy, and bring me great joy.

I also enjoy my friends, neighbors and community, walking the beautiful trails in our area and traveling.

Happy Halloween! Susan Coulston

PUBLIC POLICY

The recently passed State of California budget has many flaws. This problem has attracted the interest of AAUW CA, proposing to its branches that they begin a serious study to find ways to improve the budget process. One problem of the current legislature is the 2/3 vote required by the State Senate and the State Assembly to pass the budget. The governor can veto all or part of the budget. If that happens, it takes a 2/3 vote in each house to override a veto and undo changes by the governor. Proposition 25 on the November ballot would lower the vote needed to pass the budget from the current 2/3 to a majority, 50 percent plus one. This proposition does not change the 2/3 vote required for lawmakers to raise taxes, and could speed up the process to pass a budget. Other factors involved with budget passage were costly entitlements in a time of severe economic stress. Revenue from taxpayers was dangerously low. There simply was not enough money to fund this spending.

The need for pension reform is evident. Workers will have to contribute to their pensions so they can be sustained in the years ahead. California has a high percentage of jobless workers, and some state projects to help with job finding had to be cut or eliminated. The governor promised not to make funding cuts for higher education, but cut elsewhere. The size of the deficit is astounding, nearly twenty billion dollars, and reducing that amount was difficult. State buildings are being sold and leased back to raise funds. It is hoped that federal aid to California will exceed five billion dollars.

Continuing spending cuts and temporary tax increases have helped with balancing the budget, but the economic picture for the state is still not good. These are just a few of the many continuing budget problems besetting the legislature. Many branches will have a small study group look at the enormity of budget problems and suggest some ideas to improve the process. These will be sent to the AAUW CA Board, who will then compile the information from participating branches into a final report to go to the new governor in March, 2011. We need the help of interested branch members for this study. Please contact our public policy chair, Dana.

Before the Senate recessed to return home and campaign for the November elections, Senator Harry Reid filed a cloture petition on the Paycheck Fairness Act. This means the Senate will vote on it after they reconvene on November 15 following the election. If you haven't done so, please call your senate offices and ask the senators to call in their chits and ask fellow senators to pass this very important bill. We know that Senators Feinstein and Boxer will vote for the bill, but their influence with other senators is an important part of successfully passing this bill. When it passes, be sure to call their offices again and thank your senators! All working women deserve this help.

A White House community college summit was held recently where President Obama called on colleges to produce an additional five million graduates by 2020. Community colleges saw a 17 percent enrollment surge between 2007 and 2009. The summit led by Dr. Jill Biden highlighted new partnerships between community colleges and major corporations. It also featured commitments from private institutions, including the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, which announced the launch of a $35 million, five-year competitive grant program to boost graduations.

The United States Supreme Court opened its new term with three women justices on the bench at the same time! This is an historic event and one we should especially appreciate. Its newest member, Justice Elena Kagan, a former Solicitor General, has had to reclude herself from cases in which she participated in the old court. One case sure to make its appearance at the Supreme Court in the near future is the controversial Health Care for all Americans bill that Congress passed just months ago. It mandates that all Americans must be included or face being fined. Already, Attorneys General of several states are lining up to facilitate getting this case ready and accepted as soon as possible.

LAF Case Support

LAF is actively reviewing new case support applications. If you would like to make a case recommendation, please contact laf@aauw.org. Recommendation forms are accepted on a rolling basis..

In late September, the AAUW Board of Directors voted to disburse $4,000 to each of the following cases supported by the AAUW Legal Advocacy Fund to help offset legal fees:

- Jaureguito v. Feather River Community College (CA)
- Mansourian, et al. v. Regents of the University of California, et al.
- Thein v. Feather River Community College (CA)
- Wartluft v. Feather River Community College (CA)

The new LAF-supported case, Foltz et al. v. Delaware State University, is scheduled for trial October 18 in the U.S. District Court for Delaware..

Please consider making a tax-deductible donation to LAF to help balance the scales of justice for women.

Joan Chesterman, LAF VP

LAF is actively reviewing new case support applications. If you would like to make a case recommendation, please contact laf@aauw.org. Recommendation forms are accepted on a rolling basis.

Title IX Compliance: Know the Score: Use LAF's Title IX Compliance: Know the Score Program in a Box (PIAB) to join AAUW branches across the country in investigating local high schools. The details provided in the PIAB make the project easy to implement. Hear Jean Reed, the sports equity chair for the AAUW San Jose (CA) Branch, talk <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Th04OyLaHr8> about her branch's success with the program.

Gloria Weston Campus Outreach Fund

AAUW-LAF established the Gloria Weston Campus Outreach Fund in 2004 to honor Gloria Weston of the Orinda-Moraga-Lafayette Branch, who has given selflessly of her time, money and love to LAF. The vision of the GWCOF is to create opportunities for education and discussion on topics of equity, discrimination and tenure at California universities and colleges. Approximately 20% of all LAF cases have originated in California and that number alone lends itself to creating educational programming.

Vote Scheduled on Paycheck Fairness Act

In September, Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid (D-NV) filed closure on the Paycheck Fairness Act, a critical milestone in AAUW's efforts to move the bill toward final passage. The bill will be one of the first to be voted on during the lame-duck session starting November 15. Watch for advocacy alerts and actions this month. Our work is not over!

AAUW MISSION & ACTION: USA Science and Engineering Festival

Come one! Come all! Visit AAUW's booth at the USA Science and Engineering Festival on the National Mall in Washington, D.C., on October 23 and 24 from 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Learn about famous women in science and explore exciting careers through hands-on activities -- and find out how you can encourage girls in science and math.

AAUW Report Featured at Conference

AAUW Senior Researcher Andresse St. Rose will present on the AAUW report: Why So Few? Women in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics _at the first annual STEMtech conference. The conference will attract educators, industry leaders, and others to discuss increasing student access to and success in science and technology majors and careers.

Clayton Branch AAUW
Board Meeting Agenda
October 4, 2010

Call to Order: 7:33 p.m.

Members Present: Luz Argyriou, Joyce Atkinson, Judy Bates, JoAnn Casper, Joan Chesterman, Dana McDaniel, Lola Rohrs, Carolyn Wetzel, Carol Wolfe, Adela Oldford

Minutes: Approved as written from the last newsletter

Treasurers Report: Carol Wolfe reported that insurance bill has been paid. Scholarship money is also covered. Carol wrote a check to Clayton Community offices for the use of Endeavor Hall to Clayton Community Offices for the Spaghetti Dinner. Moved to adopt treasurer's report and file it for audit.

President: Judy Bates addressed the following issues:

Tech Trek registration is due Oct. 15. Money is not due until later. There are plans to send 3 students, possibly 4 if CBCA can contribute. Judy will send card to remind Rosemary and Jeanne regarding money to fund the Tech Trek students.

The Spaghetti Dinner needs a committee head. There was a suggestion to present this at the next regular meeting on Oct. 25. Rather than asking for an individual to head a committee, it was suggested to invite members to serve on a committee for the Spaghetti Dinner.

IBC packets were given to Joan and JoAnn from the LAF and EF meeting on Sept. 28. IBC is becoming more focused on recruiting new younger members. Judy will e-mail us with more information on the plans for the individual branches. Discussion followed on difficulties involved with the younger women and the multitude of responsibilities they shoulder with full time careers, related professional organizations, raising children, and required participation in their children's school and recreational activities, which make for serious obstacles to their being able to take part in a community and self-enrichment program like AAUW.

President Elect: Luz Argyriou Nothing to report at this time.

Secretary: Linda Pinder, Adela Oldford Nothing to report.

V.P. Membership: Lola Rohrs, Priscilla Schmalzel, Alice Ponti--Lola reported that we have 49 members. New members are Sue Koulston, Lisa Ihle, and Mary Ann Knets. There are 2 prospects, Cathy Botello and Karen Hansen-Smith. Judy requested e-mails of all new members to send with information on file to Roseanne Crane for the new directory.

V.P. Program: Carolyn Wetzel, Carylon Van Essen--Carolyn clarified with Carol Wolfe that the amount of payment for the League of Women Voters ($50.) will be divided with the Concord Branch, each paying $25.

Re. General Meeting on Oct. 25 Question raised "Do we want to conduct our General meeting business with the Concord Branch also in attendance?" It was decided that instead of general meeting, Judy Bates will send an e-mail to members that outlines the particular issues that would have been discussed at the regular meeting.

Format of the meeting: There are 2 candidates running for local offices that have asked to introduce themselves at the meeting. It was decided that the meeting would begin with Judy opening and a welcome. Then Carolyn would take the mike and introduce each of the 2 candidates, asking each to stand. Carolyn will then provide a brief explanation that these candidates have literature available regarding their qualifications at indicated table. The program would then continue with the League of Women Voters making their presentations on the propositions. A suggestion was made to bring in your sample ballot.

November meeting: Volunteer Panel. Clarified that participants in this panel are not paid.

V.P. EF JoAnn Caspar, Carol Bever-Meeting will be Feb. 19, 2011 at the Concord United Methodist Church.

V.P. LAF Joan Chesterman--Nothing to report at this time.

Scholarship - Nothing to report at this time.

Tech Trek Rosemary Harwood, Jeanne Boyd--Neither present. See notes under President.

IBC Dana McDaniel, Judy Bates---Next meeting, Nov. 16 at The Stratford at Countrywood, Pleasant Hill. Subject Topic is "Fundraising" Judy invited all interested members to ride with her.

Communication: Nothing to report. Still looking to fill this position

Unfinished Business: December Holiday Party will be held at the home of Luz Argyriou on December 5, Sunday 5:00-8:00 p.m. There will be a sign up sheet at the November meeting to bring either a dessert or hor-dourve. The $10.00 cost covers contribution for entertainment and wine, soft drinks and serving supplies. Discussion followed as to the cost. This was not resolved other than to bring it up at a future meeting. Another suggestion was made to encourage guests to bring a toy or food item to be donated to needy families.

New Business-- JoAnn would like to see Clayton AAUW donate a tree to the Festival of Trees at Diamond Terrace. She asked if there was money in the budget that could be contributed to this project. Last year the AAUW tree was beautifully decorated by Linda Pinder. Is there a possibility that she might be willing to work on this again this year . Carol suggested a $50 contribution. Judy will contact Linda.

Joyce announced the Candidates Night will be held at the Clayton Library Monday, Oct. 18
